

INTERIORS GOOD ENOUGH TO FRAME

ELLE DECOR

MARCH 2011

HOT HOUSE!
6 NEW FABRICS YOU'LL WANT TO LIVE IN

STILL LIFE WITH FRYING PANS
HOW TO MAKE A MASTERPIECE
KITCHEN

PLUS
The Power of a Furniture Inheritance

The Art Issue
CREATIVES
&
COLLECTORS
&
CONNOISSEURS
AT HOME

HOW ONE DESIGNER LOVINGLY PRESERVED A 1920S L.A. MANSION

Cliff Fong updated a Mediterranean-style home in Hancock Park, setting the stage for gutsy art and iconic modernist furniture.

By JANELLE ZARA FEB 17, 2021

William Abranowicz

S style, according to Cliff Fong, is about possessing a singular sensibility. Having worked in fashion in a former life, the Los Angeles-based interior designer, who operates under the firm name Matt Blacke, takes an approach informed by the personal style of fashion icons: “They’re never head-to-toe in Saint

TOUR THIS GLAMOROUS, ART-FILLED L.A. MANSION

PATIO Homeowner Sonya Roth, wearing a dress by the Great and Gucci heels, relaxes with her children (from left) Henry, Colette, and Anabel. The garden chairs are vintage, and the Nagasaki chairs are by Mathieu Matégot. The floor tile is by Granada Tile, the pendant is original, and the painting is by Sam Durant. William Abranowicz