

18 WAYS TO WARM UP A PLAIN WHITE ROOM

A mostly white or ivory space doesn't have to feel sterile or laboratory-like. These little warm-up acts will help you see white in a new (non-fluorescent) light.

1 Metallic Mirror

This decorating staple will boost natural light, a gold finish ups its richness, and rounded, ribbon-like edges add softness. Fiesta Wall Mirror, 34" x 43", $398; JayJagrayce.com

Think about it: A skirt adds more flounce and movement than stick-straight legs. These finds bring feminine flair without veering into prissy territory.

Entry Tablecloth Paneled Party Burlap Tablecloth (fits 72" table), $89; ballarddesigns.com

Occasional Chair Safavieh Cottage Slipcover Beige Living Room Chair, $281; overstock.com

> Bench Nailhead Skirted Storage Bench, from $499; rhteen.com

Brooklyn C31-3, $28/square foot; mosaichse.com

V

The tomore

Tunis in Chocolate, $11/ square foot; granadatile.com

$\begin{array}{c} 5 \\ \text{Graphic Tile} \end{array}$

Chances are your tub, toilet, and sink are white porcelain, so skip the single-color tile in favor of something with a little more character. These picks add age-old charm.