

TAKING CHANCES

Using her new home as a laboratory, tastemaker and author Danielle Rollins brings both substance and style to her decorating, fashion, and entertaining pursuits.

INTERIOR DESIGN BY DANIELLE ROLLINS | ARCHITECTURE BY BILL INGRAM
LANDSCAPE DESIGN BY JOHN HOWARD | PHOTOGRAPHY BY MELANIE ACEVEDO
PRODUCED BY CAROLYN ENGLEFIELD | WRITTEN BY EMILY EERDMANS

DANIELLE'S DESIGNS

Rollins's latest endeavor into fashion melds classic silhouettes with stylish flourishes. The collection—including chic accessories—reflects the same vitality as her fun and luxe interiors.

ABOVE, CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: Truman clutch in a Brunswick & Fils linen, from $200. Tassel bracelet, $275. Fitzgerald wrap skirt in silk taffeta, $1,240. danielledrollins.com.

LEFT: Rollins color-matched her closet's walls to her favorite lipstick hue. BELOW, FROM LEFT: The walls and upholstery in the master bath are in a Thibaut floral; bathtub, Kohler; fittings, Newport Brass; concrete-tile flooring, Granada Tile. Rollins in her powder room.

MELANIE ACEVEDO

The walls and upholstery in the master bath are in a Thibaut floral; bathtub, Kohler; fittings, Newport Brass; concrete-tile flooring, Granada Tile. Rollins in her powder room.